WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft officials have devised a three-step lottery to ensure that the selection of numbers is random and thus avoid criticism that surrounded the first drawing last December.

The new system will employ both man and computer when the drawing is held July 1 to determine the order in which young men turning 19 will be inducted into the armed forces.

The plan, an official said, is not yet in final form, but officials hope to avoid charges the so-called fishbowl drawing held last year favored men whose birthdays fell early in the year.

The new plan calls for the National Bureau of Standards to use a computer to scramble the 366 days in the year—including Leap Year's Feb. 29—a total of 50 different ways.

The 50 366-part lists then would be put into separate envelopes and shuffled. A bystander presumably would pick an envelope. The computer-scrambled dates then would be put in capsules and placed in a glass jar and mixed.

The third step calls for a public drawing similar to the one held Dec. 1.

The order in which a man's birthday is drawn will determine the order in which he may be drafted.

Cancer Threat Refuted

NEW YORK (AP) — The Council for Tobacco Research-U.S.A. says that findings from research it sponsored during the past 15 years do not confirm statistical evidence incriminating smoking as a cause of lung cancer, heart disease and chronic lung diseases.

The council's 1968-69 annual report issued Thursday by its scientific director, Dr. Clarence Cook Little, said, "It is an accepted fact that a statistical association is not necessarily one of causation."

The council, a research-oriented organization supported by tobacco manufacturers, growers and warehousemen, has made grants totaling $14.5 million since 1954.

The funds went to 239 independent scientists working in 186 hospitals, universities and research institutions. These researchers published 728 scientific papers.

the long session. A Southern-rural effort to kill higher pay for mailmen in New York City and other high cost-of-living areas was rejected early in the day 124 to 67.

The Nixon administration won one round—management, non-union status for supervisors—but lost another, a free rein to contract for air mail transportation with nonscheduled airlines.

Anticipated efforts by administration supporters to knock out the $107 million retroactive pay and make it harder for Congress to veto mail rates never came.

On other amendments, House:

—Rejected 53 to 41 a feature in the Senate's version of the bill to feed the postal service a 10 per cent annual "public service" subsidy.

—Rejected 89 to 61 an effort to keep new post offices subject to Congress' approval.

—Rejected by voice vote a proposal that customs inspectors be required to get warrants before opening suspected pornographic, drug-selling or other illegal mail.

"Actually I dread this, but I cannot condone the poor working conditions (at the hospitals," she said, "Therefore we will go into that field."

Bob Thomas at the Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When "The Godfather" was published, many readers marveled at its detailed picture of life in a Mafia "family" and suspected that author Mario Puzo must have had inside information.

He smiles at the suggestion.

"I grew up in New York hearing stories about the Mafia, and I've gambled a great deal so I've observed the operation. But I don't know it from the inside."

What was the reaction of the Mafia?

"They like it. I hear this from friends who are in a position to know. Or I run into guys in Las Vegas who clap me on the shoulder and say that I am a truth teller."

"The Godfather" was a romanticized version of what the Mafia life is like. They're really not that nice. Oh, they can be charming on social occasions, and their family life is very close."

"The Godfather" is one of the phenomena of recent publishing. After more than a year it remains on the hardcover best seller lists, having sold 300,000 in the trade edition and 400,000 to book clubs. Published two months ago in paperback, it has racked up 4.5 million copies sold.

Puzo is in Hollywood to convert the novel into a movie script. Paramount bought the screen rights at somewhat of a bargain.

"I sold an option for $12,000 on the basis of the first 100 pages," Puzo recalled.

With escalation clauses, Puzo will make $100,000 from the sale, plus his salary as script writer and a small percentage of the profits.

Puzo wears his success well. He is a life-loving Italian-American with straight black hair, lively eyes behind thick lenses, a round face and belly to match. He makes no secret of his delight in his newfound wealth.

"All my life I've been paying six to five to the loan sharks," he said. "It's great at last to be able to take off for Puerto Rico or Florida, just because I feel like going."

Puzo has been writing all his life, but until 10 years ago he never earned enough from it to support his wife and five children. A native New Yorker he worked as a civil servant until he started clicking in the magazine field. He produced two novels, "The Dark Arena" and "The Fortunate Pilgrim," both critically acclaimed but poor sellers.

HELEN HELP US!

DUTY OR PLEASURE?

Dear Helen:

My husband confessed that he had an affair with one of our "friends." He said it meant nothing and he would not see her again. He says he loves me only and always has, but somehow he took what was available, maybe just to find out how much he loved me. He doesn't know, and we have decided to forget it. I realize I must take the "modern" attitude that separates sex from love.

Knowing this affair is over, do you think it's my duty to tell this woman's husband about it?—P.G.

Dear P.:

Duty or pleasure? Revenge is sweet but you can keep this gal in line better by NOT telling her husband. When she knows you might, if she goes after other men in your crowd, she may decide to keep the home fires burning, exclusively.—H.

I am afraid to tell my fiancée. I'm also afraid that she will find out for I can't change the habits of a lifetime.

Please believe this is not a crank letter. I'm desperately in need of advice for I can't talk to any one. I have absolutely no homosexual tendencies, but I suppose you would call this a fetish. —SCARED TO DEATH

Dear Helen:

I have had a friend whom I've known for years. Two months ago she wanted to borrow a large amount of money from me, saying she would pay it back two weeks. I had saved this money to buy furniture, but thought I could spare it temporarily.

Time went by and she still owed me. Finally I called and asked for repayment, as I needed my money. She came over next day, with a check, but I now have one less friend. She was very, very hurt that I asked. And I asked very tactfully, mentioning a furniture sale on now.

Should I apologize or consider myself lucky to find out what kind of friend she really is? —C. C.

Dear C.:

Wait for her apology. If it isn't forthcoming — well, now you know! —H.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — The economic squeeze that is shrinking the family's pocketbook is also hitting the television networks. They are reacting the way the average citizen does: looking for places to economize.

Television's austerity budgets probably will not be noticeable until fall, if then, but the 1970-71 season promises to be difficult. Cigarette advertising which totals as much as $250 million a year will disappear after New Year's Day. There are hopes of attracting new sponsors to fill the void, but other corporations also are watching their budgets.

CBS is on an especially vigorous economy effort. Omitted from next season's schedule will be the network's expensive but prestigious "CBS Playhouse" series of three or four original dramas; "CBS Children's Playhouse," each of which costs as much as an adult dramatic production, and the long-playing "Young People's Concerts."

NBC's "On Stage" series of original dramas has lost its insurance sponsor and unless another happens along, it will be among the missing next fall.

All networks think twice about replacements for executives and other personnel. Contracts of three NBC News producers which expired in recent months have not been renewed, including those of George Vicas who has been turning out documentaries in Europe and aeadader "Today" producer who has been developing new projects.

Both NBC and ABC say that their program schedules will not be affected by economies. While CBS is expected to cut its number of specials, NBC and ABC, which usually has fewer specials than the other two networks, say they plan no reductions.

Economies can be made unobtrusively. The cost of the average hour-long episode in a dramatic series runs around $200,000. Networks are planning seasons of 24 to 26 episodes per series, which means that more than half of each television year will be devoted to reruns.

It is also possible to cut down on elaborate sets and costumes; hire less expensive guest stars, put fewer musicians in the bands, reduce or eliminate scenes requiring lots of extras, and eliminate or cut back on location shooting.

The last of NBC's "American Rainbow" series of children's programs, "A Kid's Eye View of Washington" will be broadcast Saturday at 11:30 a.m. 12:30 p.m. EDT.

Art Linkletter will guide four youngsters to points of interest around the capital.

When the series returns it will be NBC's "Children's Theatre" because it has lost the sponsor who keyed his advertising to the title.

SPORTS

Social Beats Florida State for Title

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Gene Ammann, junior right-handed pitcher for Florida State, was named the most outstanding player of the College World Series Thursday night.

Ammann, who recently was drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers, won two World Series games for the runnerup Seminoles. He closed the season unbeaten with 15 victories.

In his two complete series games he yielded nine hits, struck out 18, walked two and had a 1.00 ERA.

He headed the all-tournament team selected by sports writers and broadcasters covering the tournament.

The rest of the team included: Left-handed Pitcher — Jim Barr, Southern California; Catcher — Tommy Harmon, Texas; First Base — John Langerhans, Texas; Second Base — Frank Alfano, Southern California.

Shortstop — Jerry Lundin, Iowa State; Third base — Dan Stollgrosz, Southern California; Outfielders — John Grubb, Florida State; Gary Shade, Ohio U.; and Mike Markl, Texas.

OMAHA (AP) — Southern California is king again of NCAA baseball, having wrapped up its sixth College World Series championship in what the Trojans' veteran coach, Rod Deaneux, proclaimed as "the most exciting of them all."

It took top-ranked USC 15 innings — matching a record length of a title contest in the tournament's 24-year history — to defeat No. 3 Florida State 2-1 Thursday night in what must go down as the Bullpen World Series.

The Trojans, who last won in 1968, used sophomore Greg Widman through the first seven innings before yanking him for a pinchhitter. Ace senior right-hander Jim Barr finished brilliantly to get his second series victory in a 14-2 series. He yielded three hits, struck out 5 and walked but one.

But this job was overshadowed by lanky lefty Mac Scarce. The junior was the fourth of five Seminoles pitchers and for 7 1-3 innings to the 15th he gave but one hit, fanning nine and issuing three walks, one unintentionally.

The relief specialist absorbed the loss, closing the campaign with a 1-2 mark. Scarce, whose Texas leaguer in a mild 15th inning threat was his first hit of the year, left the game with a blistered hand to the thunderous applause of 11,542 fans in Rosenblatt Stadium who swelled the total week-long attendance to a record high of 74,683.

The winning run came on Frank Alfano's third hit of the game, a slow roller that pitcher Carl Gromek fielded while sliding to the ground and threw too late to the plate to get Cal Meier.

Meier, whose 11 assists at shortstop established a championship game record, had led off the inning by walking.

Meier's single in the seventh inning produced the 1-1 tie after Florida State scored a freak unearned run on a fifth inning error that saw the Seminoles' starter, lefty Pat Osburn, carried from the field with a twisted knee.

With two out, Tom Porter singled. Osburn followed, bouncing in front of the plate. As Widman fielded the ball and threw it over the first baseman, Osburn collapsed as he touched the bag. Porter scored from second on the error.

USC ended its season with a 51-13 record and Florida State, finishing its fifth trip to the big show, wound up with 49-9.

Ed Harris Tops State Golfers

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Ed Harris of North Little Rock forged a one-stroke lead Thursday in the opening round of the state medal golf championship at the Pine Bluff Country Club.

Harris fired a one-under-par 70. Matching par were Herman Styles of Pine Bluff, Tom Roney and Gerald Barnett, both of Little Rock, and Tony Peterson of El Dorado.

Yankees Edge Boston by 3-2

Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees needed some help and the call was answered by wandering Gary Waslewski.

The former Boston Red Sox right-hander got one of his infrequent starts and performed superbly, allowing his former teammates two harmless singles for six innings before firing in the Yankees 3-2 victory over Boston Wednesday night.

"I had to come up with somebody," Houk said. "I thought Gary might be the guy."

Waslewski, a 28-year-old picked up from the Montreal Expos a month ago, was just that, providing the lift and the Yankees winning their 12th game in 14 starts — edged to within 1 1/2 games of the American League East Division lead, trailing Baltimore Orioles. Last year at this time, the Yankees trailed Baltimore by 1 1/2 games. They were 31-35 compared to the current mark of 38-25.

In the only other AL game, Cleveland stopped Washington 6-3, while in the only two National League contests, Montreal ripped Atlanta 10-7 and Chicago blanked San Francisco 6-0.

The Yanks led 3-0, including a homer by Curt Blefary and a run-scoring single by Bob Murcer before Waslewski was reached for a lead-off homer by Sox' shortstop Rico Petrocelli in the seventh.

Houk replaced Waslewski, who was making only his second start for the Yankees, with ace bullpener Lindy McDaniel, who held off the Red Sox despite Petrocelli's second solo homer, a ninth-inning blast into the screen in left.

Waslewski, who pitched in the 1967 World Series for the Red Sox, moved to the St. Louis Cardinals and the Expos in 1969 before the Yankees bought him. He also hurled for seven minor league clubs in his 10-year pro career.

The victory was his first of the season after going 0-2 with Montreal.

Tony Horton slammed a three-run homer in the eighth inning, snapping a 3-3 tie and giving the Indians their fifth consecutive victory.

Horton also ripped a pair of singles and was aided by solo homers by teammates Ray Fosse and Craig Nettles. Aurelio Rodriguez had a two-run shot for the Senators.

Ron Fairly slugged an eighth-inning grand slam homer to cap Montreal's six-run rally in over-taking the Braves who got three hits from Hank Aaron, including his 18th roundtripper of the season.

Aaron, who drove in four runs, added a single and double along with his two-run shot, the 372nd of his career while Gary Gosger drilled four hits for the Expos, including a two-run homer.

Ron Santo and Billy Williams belted homers and the Cubs breezed to their triumph behind the seven-hit hurling of right-hander Ferguson Jenkins.

Santo's was a two-run shot off loser Rich Robertson while Williams contributed his 18th of the season, a solo shot, as Jenkins, 8-7, rolled to his fifth consecutive triumph.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Janan Trimble of Little Rock, who was second-seeded beat top-seeded Kathy Kuykendall of Miami, Fla., Thursday to win the 14-under championship of the Southern Girls Open Tennis tournament.

Miss Trimble defeated Miss Kuykendall, 6-3, 6-2.

Yok. Each ABA club would be required to pay an indemnity of $1.25 million over a 10-year period. The indemnity wouldn't apply to Washington, Kennedy said.

"Unless legislation permitting formation of a single league is enacted, disintegration of the ABA is only a matter of time," the joint statement said.

It said every ABA club has incurred substantial losses and every year of operation "that during those same years more than half of the NBA clubs 'lost substantial sums'."

The statement continued: "Major league basketball, hockey and football have all achieved the stability necessary for orderly expansion and more balanced competition on the field which the fans undoubtedly want."

"Basketball has not and, without a unified league, cannot."

Freehan in Record Vote for All-Star

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Freehan, the Detroit Tigers' All-Star catcher for six consecutive American League seasons in player balloting, was the people's choice to make it seven in a row, drawing the most votes in the first weekly release announced today by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

The National League's initial returns were announced Monday for the 41st mid-season classic between the two major leagues. The game will be played July 14 in Cincinnati's new Riverfront Stadium.

With the voting turned over to the fans for the first time since 1957, Freehan drew 265,238 of the 491,548 votes cast. Elrod Hendricks of Baltimore was a distant second at catcher with 36,555 votes.

Boog Powell, Baltimore's slugging first baseman was the second biggest vote-getter, gaining 255,515. Rod Carew, the Minnesota Twins' second baseman and current league batting leader with a .364 mark, was next with 236,938 votes.

The rest of the team in the early voting shows Harmon Killebrew of the Twins at third base, Rico Petrocelli of Boston at shortstop and Baltimore's Frank Robinson, Frank Howard of Washington and Carl Yastrzemski of the Red Sox in the outfield.

The fan balloting will end June 28 and the official starting All-Star team will be announced July 6-7. The voting is limited to eight starters with the rival managers, Earl Weaver of Baltimore and Gil Hodges of the New York Mets, naming the pitchers and remainder of the squad.

The first American League returns will be released Friday. The NL's early leaders included Johnny Bench, Cincinnati, catcher; Willie McCovey, San Francisco, first base; Glenn Beckert, Chicago, second base; Tony Perez, Cincinnati, third base; Don Kessinger, Chicago, shortstop; and outfielders Hank Aaron and Rico Carty of Atlanta and Willie Mays of San Francisco.

Freehan, Powell, Carew, Frank Robinson, Howard and Yastrzemski each held commanding leads at their respective positions with stiff battles only at shortstop and third base. Petrocelli, last season's starter at short, who is only hitting .125 this season, holds a slim 131,894 to 124,289 lead over Luis Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox. Aparicio is hitting at a .314 clip.

At third, Killebrew holds nearly a 10,000-vote lead over Brooks Robinson, Baltimore's golden glove. Killebrew has earned 185,505 votes to Robinson's 175,494.

Runners-up at each position include Norm Cash of Detroit, behind Powell at first; Tommy Harper of Milwaukee at second; and Tony Oliva of the Twins, Roy White of the New York Yankees and Reggie Smith of the Red Sox, in the outfield.

Gridders' Wage Talks Break Down

NEW YORK (AP) — With the first pro football training camps scheduled to open in about three weeks, negotiations in the National Football League between the owners and players have broken down.

Whether this will lead to a threatened boycott by the players, as two years ago, is a matter of conjecture.

Both the NFL Players Association and the owners negotiating committee disclosed the breakdown Thursday in their efforts to agree on a new contract to replace the old pact that has expired.

John Mackey, a tight end with the Baltimore Colts and president of the Players Association, said the NFLPA has filed an unfair labor practice charge against the NFL owners, accusing them of refusing to negotiate.

The NFL Owners Committee, in a statement by chairman Tex Schramm of the Dallas Cowboys, declared the players had tried to reduce the role of Commissioner Pete Rozelle and that "we will in no way compromise the office of the commissioner."

Mackey said the NFLPA was ready to resume negotiating at any time and that the organization's position was that "a reasonable agreement could be reached without resort to legal procedures or economic action."

Schramm's statement said, "The issue of the commissioner's role was created by the players at a recent Baltimore meeting and 'it is now up to them to withdraw the challenge or both parties must await the NLRB ruling.'"

Crawford shot a two-over-par 74 Thursday. Miller Barber of Texarkana had a 75.

Super Putting and Accurate Driving Spell Golf Success

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
HOSHAM, Pa. (AP) — Shirley Englehorn says super putting and accurate driving are the answers to pressure on the golf course.

Miss Englehorn began her bid today for an unprecedented fifth straight victory on the women's professional golf tour.

She is in a field of 58 pros and six amateurs who started the 54-hole George Washington Classic at Hidden Springs Golf and Country Club.

The 29-year-old Miss Englehorn, playing out of Palm Desert, Calif., has won four tournaments in a row, tying the record set by Mickey Wright in 1962 and equaled by Miss Wright in 1963 and by Kathy Whitworth.

"Granted, I would like to set a record," said Miss Englehorn, "but I don't feel any pressure because of it. If I continue to putt super and drive well I might get it the record."

Laver Is Richey's Hurdle

By GEOFFREY MILLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LONDON (AP) — Cliff Richey, the United States' No. 1 tennis star today faced the perfect workout before Wimbledon — a match against Rod Laver of Australia, the reigning Wimbledon champion.

The two met in the semifinals of the London Grass Courts Championships at Queens Club, Richey, from San Angelo, Tex., was delighted.

"Just what I wanted before Wimbledon," he said. "A match against Laver would sharpen up any man's game."

Richey has one memory to encourage him. He has played Laver only once, on an indoor court at New York's Madison Square Garden 15 months ago, and beat him by two sets to one.

Richey defeated Georges Goven to reach the semifinals of this en of France, 6-4, 6-3, Thursday last big warm-up event before Wimbledon, which begins Sunday.

Laver, looking super-efficient, crushed Dick Crealy of Australia, 31, will be bidding for his third straight Wimbledon crown and his fifth in all.

The other semifinal today was between John Newcombe of Australia and Marty Riesen of Evanston, Ill.

Newcombe thrust aside Charlie Pasarell of Santurce, Puerto Rico, 6-1, 6-2, while Riesen flattened Frew McMillan of South Africa, 6-4, 6-0.

In the women's semifinals, Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia opposed Pat Walkden of South Africa and Kerry Melville of Australia played Winnie Shaw of Britain.

Britt said in an interview Wednesday that if a conflict existed he would step down as a leader of Arkansans for the Constitution of 1970.

The Republican lieutenant governor is co-chairman of the organization along with former Gov. Sid McMath. McMath took himself out of the Democratic race for governor Monday because, he said, he feels the proposed new document will be the most important issue on the November general election ballot.

CHASKA, Minn. (AP) — Sunny, cool weather is expected to continue today as the U.S. Open at Hazeltine National golf course enters its second day.

The golfers are expected to get a major break when winds diminish to "light and variable" following Thursday's gusts up to 40 miles per hour, the Weather Bureau said.

Faubus Says Lineup Gives Him a Break

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — All in all, things would not well for former Gov. Orval E. Faubus as, in the last days before the Tuesday filing deadline, several formidable possible candidates fell away.

On one side were Ted Boswell of Bryant and Sid McMath of Little Rock; on the other were Jim Johnson of Conway and his wife, Virginia.

Faubus, who served six terms up to 1966, observed cheerfully in an interview after the deadline this week that the situation "is much better than I had anticipated."

Another factor in his favor is thought to be the entry of the Rev. R. J. Hampton of North Little Rock, a Negro, into the Republican party gubernatorial race and 11 Negro candidates for the legislature, all on the GOP side.

The theory is that either of the Johnsons, as gubernatorial candidates, would have drained away from Faubus some of the votes of states' rights advocates.

With each of the Johnsons out, Faubus can expect a larger slice of support from this group, with which he has had strong rapport since his 1957 intervention in the desegregation of Little Rock Central High School.

McMath and Boswell are at opposite poles from the Johnsons, Faubus said, but have drawn votes of labor groups who now must turn elsewhere—perhaps to Faubus—for a candidate to support.

Each of the four would also have been in position to attack Faubus from extremely varied viewpoints.

"It is a little difficult to defend both flanks and the rear and still fight forward," Faubus said. "I think any one of those four could have gotten many votes I will otherwise get."

Faubus said he thought McMath would run. McMath defurred in favor of working for adoption of the proposed new state constitution.

The former six-term governor said he was not surprised, however, by Boswell's decision to bow out. Boswell said he did not want to attempt an under-financed campaign.

"He wanted to be well-financed," Faubus said. "But to do that, most of his money would have had to come from out of state, from labor groups that are supporting other candidates."

The Johnsons bowed out in favor of the Fulbright, D-Ark. Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who defeated Johnson in the 1968 Democratic party primary.

The race by Hampton, first Negro to run for governor in years, and candidates by blacks for the legislature is expected to draw many Negro voters into the GOP primary.

Rockefeller has acknowledged providing financial assistance to some legislative candidates, but his organization seemed genuinely perturbed that Rockefeller himself would have to face a black candidate.

One theory, advanced by a Democrat, was that the GOP hoped to draw blacks into the party's primary to reduce the possibility that a relatively new face, such as Boswell's, would obtain the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Rockefeller has said he would "relish" another race against Faubus, who beat Rockefeller in the 1964 gubernatorial election. Some Republicans say Faubus would be the Democratic hopeful most vulnerable to a Rockefeller attack.

However, if blacks are attracted to the GOP primary because black candidates will be running there, then the possibility of the voting booth—the black voter also will go for Hampton, since he is black.

In the GOP primary, which attracted only about 30,000 voters in all in 1968, it would not take an insurmountable number of black-inclined black voters to make Rockefeller the victim of what had originally been a Republican stratagem.

One expectable result, Capitol observers say, is an intense campaign by the Rockefeller

Brazil Digs in for Final Game

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The favored Brazilian team settled here today amid signs of a budding psychological warfare with Italy, its rival in the climactic finals of the World Soccer Cup on Sunday.

The rumblings of warfare erupted Thursday afternoon when Brazilian radio stations carried reports that Italy had been disqualified from the finals because doping tests had been proven positive on two players, and that West Germany would replace the Italians.

The reports were denied by the Italians, the West Germans and the International Soccer Federation (FIFA) itself.

The Brazilians flew in to Mexico City on Thursday night after a tearful departure from Guadalajara, where they won all their five matches on their way to the finals.

The Italians have been buoyed by their cliff hanger 4-3 victory over West Germany and the tremendous popular explosion in Italy after that victory.

But Brazil will be the crowd favorite on Sunday at noon in Aztec Stadium when both teams fight to win the Jules Rimet Cup for the third time, and thus, according to regulations, put the trophy out of circulation.

The 23rd man in that game, and perhaps, the key, will be referee Rudy Glockner of East Germany. Glockner, 41, was picked Thursday for the greatest honor in his career—to judge a World Cup finals match.

Glockner will be under tremendous pressure in the finals, which have often been marred by controversial decisions. English and German fans are still arguing about England's controversial third goal, which propelled them to victory in the 1966 Cup.

Britt Sees No Conflict in Dual Role

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt says he sees no conflict in his dual roles as co-chairman of a bipartisan effort to win adoption of the proposed new state constitution and as manager of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's re-election campaign.

Britt said in an interview Wednesday that if a conflict existed he would step down as a leader of Arkansans for the Constitution of 1970.

Let's Reflect: "Hear ye children, the instruction of a Father."—Solomon

CALENDAR OF EVENTS:
The Mt. Zion C.M.E. Church on Hickory Street here in Hope will observe annual Father's Day in special rituals.

Emphasis is placed on male attendance to the church's teaching and Worship Services.

The Sunday School will open at 9:30 a.m. and officials are optimistic of having a 100 per cent increase attendance in the Men's Bible Class.

Morning worship begins at 11:00 and the pastor the Rev. Thomas Cherry will deliver the special Father's Day Sermon.

Special recognition will be accorded all Fathers in attendance.

The public is invited to both services.

Bethel A.M.E. Church in Father's Day Commentary

While Father's Day may deserve lack the sympathetic drive and emotional tenderness that is inherently human in a Mother's Day observance, it should be noted that Father's Day is one within its own right of the greatest observances in our nation today.

The sympathy and tenderness common to Mother's Day observance may easily be substituted in Father's Day observance with such attributes as heroism, strength and dignity. It is the fathers and potential fathers who have given and are still giving their lives in war for the freedom of the greatest country in the world, the United States of America.

The nation's scientists, inventors, pioneers, industrial executives and workers, pilots and navigators, financier and merchants, lawyers, physicians, educators, statesmen and politicians governors of the States and Presidents of the United States have been and are majorly the Nation's Fathers.

There, however, is one other position where the affirmatively good influence of the father should be exerted. This is "in the home," especially as it relates to the training of and counseling with the children.

Crime could doubtless be reduced as much as fifty per cent within the next generation if the nation's fathers who are spared by war to be in the chronicle of family relationship development would assume the dominant responsibility role of family support and christian counsel.

The Complement of Mother's Day is Father's Day, which falls on the third Sunday in June annually.

President Calvin Coolidge recommended the national observance of this day in 1924, though President Woodrow Wilson had officially approved the idea as early as 1918. It is said that Spokane, Washington is the first city to establish a Father's Day in 1910. The rose is the official Father's Day flower.

In a unique Service, Bethel A.M.E. Church will observe Father's Day.

Altar boys for the special ritual are Reginald Muldrew and Craig Humbert. Craig is a member of Loneok Baptist Church, Dr. W. G. Wynn is Bethel's pastor. The public is invited to the services.

Today this column is turned over to James Jacoby to write about one of his very good friends.

When Dr. Robert Farris, his wife, Charlotte and daughters Judy and Marilyn were killed in a plane crash in Austin, Tex., the game of bridge lost one of its most distinguished young players. Bob wasn't a great player. His extensive practice as a neurosurgeon gave him little time for other activities. However, he had won numerous regionals and came close to winning the Spingold Cup in 1960.

My wife and I had visited the Farris home in Austin on many occasions and I had played with Bob frequently. They were a lovely family and everyone who knew them will miss them.

Bob was an aggressive bidder as may be seen from his jump to four spades. Aggressive bidding needs good play to go along with it and Bob was mighty good at handling the dummy. It would have been a cinch for him to go down at this four-spade game. All he had to do would be to win the heart lead. Then, if the defense played two rounds of spades at the first opportunity Bob would have to lose two hearts, one club and the ace of trumps.

Bob saw this trap and avoided it by the simple expedient of letting West hold the first trick. Now it didn't matter what West did. If he played ace and another trump, Bob would be able to set up dummy's diamonds while the ace of hearts remained as an entry.

West did continue hearts. Bob won the second heart in dummy, entered his hand with the ace of clubs, ruffed his last heart with the 10 of trumps and eventually lost a club and the ace of trumps plus the trick lost at the start.

What do you do now?

A—Bid four no-trump. If your partner shows only one ace you can stop at five no-trump by bidding five spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You do bid four no-trump and your partner bids five spades to show three aces. What do you do now?

Tetanus Booster Shots

Last 12 to 15 Years

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—How often should I take a tetanus shot?

A—Recent studies have shown that, if a person of any age has his initial three doses of tetanus and diphtheria toxoid and a booster dose one year later, his immunity to tetanus lasts for 12 to 15 years and that taking boosters often after every 10 years may cause an allergic reaction.

Q—I am allergic to tetanus toxoid. What should I do if I need a tetanus booster in the future?

A—In an emergency tetanus immune globulin (human) is an effective means of protection. Tetanus antitoxin is no longer recommended.

Q—I am the mother of four children. What would cause me to pass a few drops of urine whenever I laugh, cough or jump? Can this be cured?

A—This condition, stress incontinence, is common in women who have had several children. It is the result of a relaxation of the pelvic support of the bladder. In most women these supporting muscles can be strengthened by learning to contract them. They are the ones used to check the flow of urine when you have not yet emptied your bladder. You should contract these muscles 20 times before getting out of bed in the morning and 20 more times standing by the bed after arising. This exercise, which can be done while lying, sitting or standing should be repeated several times during the day.

If after eight weeks this has not helped, you might consider having a small electronic stimulator implanted under the skin over your bladder. Surgical repair should be done only as a last resort.

Q—My doctor says I have non-tropical sprue. After a year of treatment my liver still isn't down to normal size. Is there any cure for this disease?

A—Non-tropical sprue or adult celiac

CITY PROBLEM
NORWICH, England (AP) —The Church of England is suffering from an inner city problem. Thirty or more medieval churches in the center of Norwich are in parishes consisting of a few score people, because of general movement out to the suburbs. A commission of inquiry appointed by the Bishop of Norwich has recommended that 24 churches in the city should no longer be financed by the church and should be demolished unless suitable other use can be found for them. The commission recommends that the inner city should be reorganized into four major parishes.

Paper Work Engulfs Church Meet

By RANDOLPH SCHMID
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —The 110th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. marched steadily into a mass of paperwork, committee reports and resolutions Monday night.

It was a prelude to a week of business sessions, which followed Sunday's election of Dr. William A. Benfield of Charleston, W. Va., as the new moderator of the primarily Southern denomination.

Monday's activities were concerned with routine matters, as the delegates received the reports of the committees on women's work, annuities and relief and on the use of television, radio and audio-visual materials.

Debate is expected later this week when the group considers a resolution asking the church to declare abortion a matter strictly between a woman and her doctor.

The group will also consider a change in its position on drinking alcoholic beverages, realignment of the boundaries of church units and a challenge to last year's declaration that evolution and the Bible do not conflict.

Early Monday Benfield met the press in his first conference after being elected head of the million-member denomination. Benfield said he sees no need for realignment of liberals and conservatives into two separate denominations. He said he hoped that by 1975 the separate denominations in the country could unite into one large Presbyterian body.

Benfield called also for unity within his own church, saying that small splinter groups formed for their own aims did it no service. He said the church can have unity without conformity. Benfield suggested that one route to unity might be a week-long Presbyterian assembly in which no decisions would have to be made. He suggested that the meeting be a chance for people to meet together, live together and pray together and to discover each other through love.

Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —The 110th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. marched steadily into a mass of paperwork, committee reports and resolutions Monday night.

It was a prelude to a week of business sessions, which followed Sunday's election of Dr. William A. Benfield of Charleston, W. Va., as the new moderator of the primarily Southern denomination.

Monday's activities were concerned with routine matters, as the delegates received the reports of the committees on women's work, annuities and relief and on the use of television, radio and audio-visual materials.

Debate is expected later this week when the group considers a resolution asking the church to declare abortion a matter strictly between a woman and her doctor.

The group will also consider a change in its position on drinking alcoholic beverages, realignment of the boundaries of church units and a challenge to last year's declaration that evolution and the Bible do not conflict.

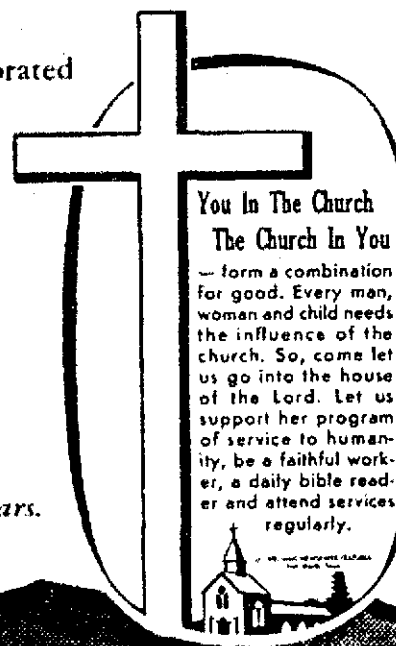

Early Monday Benfield met the press in his first conference after being elected head of the million-member denomination. Benfield said he sees no need for realignment of liberals and conservatives into two separate denominations. He said he hoped that by 1975 the separate denominations in the country could unite into one large Presbyterian body.

Benfield called also for unity within his own church, saying that small splinter groups formed for their own aims did it no service. He said the church can have unity without conformity. Benfield suggested that one route to unity might be a week-long Presbyterian assembly in which no decisions would have to be made. He suggested that the meeting be a chance for people to meet together, live together and pray together and to discover each other through love.

Thanks,
Dad!

It is Father's Day! May we honor the guy whose heart is as tender as a woman's... the fellow whose respect is as genuine as that of a mother. This nationally celebrated day for Father didn't come too soon. For Dad is the guy who dared the wiles of the forest and the death-dealing miseries of the prairie, to insure added comforts for Mom, and Sue, and Dan. The taming of the west is actually the story of gruff ole 'Pop' in his triumph over difficulty and danger to make a finer future for those he loved. He was the hardy pathmaker for our feet. Gifts for Father? Yes, but much better would be a gracious, kind word of thanks for all his sacrifices through the year. On this celebrated day, say a prayer to the great Father God, for happiness and comradeship that will soften the burdens of the remaining years, and make the last ones truly his most Golden Years.

Jobless Figure to Go Over 5%

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz says unemployment probably will climb above the 5 per cent rate recorded in May, the highest monthly figure since 1965.

The prediction came in Shultz' first interview since he was named by President Nixon to head a new White House superagency, the Office of Management and Budget. The change is due July 1.

Shultz told the Associated Press his department's weekly tally of unemployment compensation claims is still rising, indicating the number of jobless persons will go up in some of the coming months.

The secretary criticized Congress for failing to provide measures he said Nixon had requested to cushion the impact on employment from a cutback in defense and aerospace spending and the anti-inflation effort.

And he dismissed any likelihood of a conflict between himself and John D. Ehrlichman, the tough-minded presidential assistant named by Nixon to head the other new White House superagency, the Domestic Council.

The questions and answers:

Q: There's speculation your new job will concentrate a great deal more power in the White House in matters of domestic spending and the economy. Is that a fair judgment?

A: No, I don't think so. I think this question of where power is and how it is moving is very difficult to analyze. The fact is things are flowing in all directions. Things are flowing toward the White House, things are flowing away from the White House toward the Cabinet departments. We're making a great effort in the Nixon administration to move control of things more in the direction of the states and cities.

Q: Do you think this will give a more effective expenditure and management control?

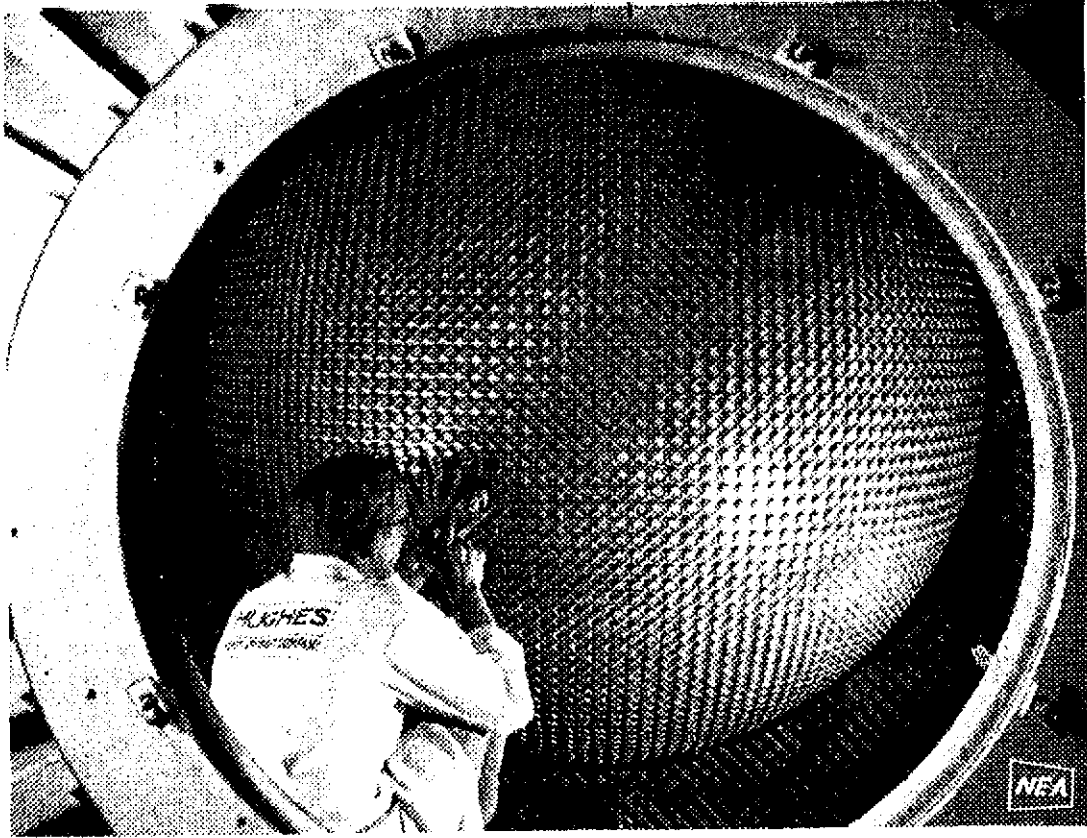

A: Certainly that is the hope, and I expect—I feel confident—that we will be able to make the government operate more effectively. Now, that certainly doesn't mean trying to have more things actually done in the White House. The idea is to try to get greater clarity into the operations and we'll be trying to do that.

Q: There's been some criticism to the effect there might be overlaps and conflicts rather than clarification of responsibilities.

A: As between who and who? Q: Between Ehrlichman and Shultz.

A: Sure. Well, the distinctions among what you do and how you do it and how well you do it, and so on—obviously those are words that do have content and meaning, and at the same time there's an awful lot of how, and how well, in any what. And there's an awful lot of what in figuring out how and evaluating it, so that these things are all connected.

Now, I think in addition to what formal lines of specialized areas we develop we also will have to work closely together as individuals. It would have to be practically on a day-to-day basis.

OUTSIDE STAIRS ARE VICTIMS OF WEATHER

By MR. FIX

Outdoor stairways cannot be ignored the way those indoors are. Inside the house a stairway may develop a squeak but it isn't likely to fall down.

Outside, wind and rain take their toll of stairs. Even if you never used the stairway it would need attention.

Regular maintenance and more frequent repairs are necessary whatever the material in use—wood, concrete or brick.

Wooden stairs, naturally, should be checked frequently for signs of weakness and decay. Examine the stringers (the sides that hold the steps) for cracking. You can strengthen a stringer by bolting an additional piece of wood along its length.

Use a 2x4 or a 2x6 and use carriage bolts to fasten it. Nails might cause further splitting.

Treads (the part of the step you put your feet on) are attached to the stringer by cleats fastened to the inside of the stringer or by grooves cut into the stringer.

Loose cleats can be tightened with new screws. Badly damaged or decayed cleats should be replaced. If the wood around grooves has started to splinter or decay, reinforce with cleats.

When doing this kind of work, remove the tread carefully. Tap lightly on the underside on each end to avoid cracking. When you replace the tread, re nail completely.

Treads should be replaced if badly worn. If a tread is worn slightly at the center get extra wear out of it by turning it over.

In a brick stairway look for worn mortar and loose bricks. Clean out loose mortar and remortar if brick is still securely in place. If brick is loose, remove completely. Scrape out all the loose mortar. Don't leave any particles. Hose down thoroughly. This gets rid of loose dirt and moistens the surface for the new mortar.

Use ready-mix and cover all surfaces of the brick, except the face, with mortar.

Fit the brick in place and fill up remaining space with mortar. Scrape away excess. Keep the area wet for a few days.

Look for cracks in concrete steps. Open them with a hammer and chisel so that all loose concrete is cleaned out. Fill with fresh concrete after wetting the surface. Make the crack wider at the bottom than at the surface. Wet it for the next few days.

Q: How do you see the outlook on inflation? I believe you've been saying that you expected the price trend to slow a little bit by the end of the year?

A: I think so. I think it is clear enough that the inflation we inherited is a very tough thing to get hold of. Tougher than I thought it would be.

On the other hand I believe that the process of taking hold gradually, not slamming the brakes on too hard, is the right approach. I think that we are beginning to see some signs of it working. It's a hard road, there's no doubt about it.

City Riots Less Likely This Summer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the federal agency charged with heading off unrest in the nation's ghettos says a replay of racial violence on the scale of Watts, Newark and Detroit is unlikely this summer.

But he adds that simmering unrest among racial minorities — "the everyday little tensions" — could easily boil over during confrontations with police into sporadic outbreaks.

"There is still, unfortunately, a great deal of hostility toward the police by minority groups," said Ben Holman, the director of the Justice Department's Community Relations Service.

"Under certain circumstances, almost any kind of confrontation could lead to some kind of violence," Holman, a Negro, said in an interview. But he added: "This is not to predict wholesale rioting."

The police, he added, should "avoid at all costs the things that would tend to escalate a situation."

Holman's assessment was followed Thursday by a Justice Department prediction, prompted by reports it is gearing up for trouble in big city ghettos, that "cool heads will prevail this summer and violence will be avoided."

"This is due mainly to citizens' increasingly negative attitude toward violence and to police experience and training and handling of difficult situations." The statement, unsigned by any Justice official, said.

What now confronts city officials, community leaders and the police, Holman said, is "a different kind of situation."

"When there is trouble, it will be minor outbreaks of violence between unorganized groups of blacks and browns and police," he said.

The pattern was set last summer, when feared large-scale violence in the cities did not materialize, Holman said.

Although big city officials and police departments have become more sophisticated in handling potentially explosive situations, their counterparts in medium- to small-size cities have had less experience, Holman said.

Half U. S. Troops Still in Cambodia

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although President Nixon has said "the great majority" of U.S. forces would be out of Cambodia by now, authoritative sources say half the number of American troops sent into that nation is still there.

The President also has promised to have all American troops out by June 30. He repeated the pledge Wednesday in his televised report to the nation on economic conditions.

As of Wednesday, however, the sources said about 10,000 American troops remain in Cambodia "still searching, still sweeping and still removing enemy supplies" from the jungle sanctuaries along the South Vietnamese border.

In his May 8 news conference, Nixon said: "The great majority of all American units will be out by the second week of June."

The Defense Department has said the U.S. troop level in Cambodia reached 20,000 men soon after the incursion started April 29.

The White House denied this week the President's words about the mid-June target constituted a pledge. A spokesman contended the President had merely voiced an expectation based on field reports from Saigon.

Since the Cambodian operation began with the announced purpose of cleaning out enemy sanctuaries, the White House and Pentagon have used different figures on the number of troops involved.

In his June 3 report to the nation on the progress of the Cambodian operation, Nixon said 31,000 American troops took part and 17,000 had been pulled back across the border into South Vietnam. The Pentagon at the time was using a figure of 20,000.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedheim sought to clear up this apparent discrepancy by explaining the following day that the 31,000 figure used by the President represented the total number of U.S. troops who had been in Cambodia since the start of the Cambodian incursion.

"At no single time had more than 20,000 troops been involved across the border," Friedheim explained.

City Management ... A Complex Role

By Leonard Ellis and George Frazier, Publicity Committee

Under the City Manager form of government like we have in Hope, the City Manager's job is indeed complex.

He is a policy advisor, a planner, a dollar stretcher. He tackles everything from answering complaints to preparing the city budget.

In Hope, he serves in a dual capacity, as City Manager and also as Supervisor of the Water and Light Plant.

He is hired by the Board of Directors and serves at the pleasure of the directors without contract.

The directors are elected by the people, seven in all. They usually serve a term of four years, and without pay. The Board elects its own chairman — called the Mayor.

The City Manager and the Directors work as a team. Major decisions are made by the directors and the City Manager carries them out as a professional administrator.

The City Manager's role also includes:

1. To see that all laws and ordinances are enforced.
2. To appoint and remove department heads and employees on the basis of merit and to exercise control and supervision over all departments.
3. To make such recommendations to the directors concerning the affairs of the city as may seem to him desirable.
4. To keep the city directors advised of the financial conditions and future needs of the city.
5. To prepare and submit the annual budget to the directors.
6. To prepare and submit to directors reports, proposals, long-range planning essential to the growth and welfare of the city.

While this provides the essential legal framework for the manager's job, it does not fully describe the manager's complex role. The electrical, water and sewerage problems can become highly technical, tedious.

Fortunately, Hope has a City Manager with an electrical engineering background, and with long experience.

In today's modern world, application of scientific, technical, and professional know-how to cope with the community's essential services and programs is very desirable.

TO RETAIN THE CITY MANAGER FORM OF GOVERNMENT, MARK YOUR BALLOT ON JULY 14 IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

FOR the proposition to reorganize the City of Hope under the MAYOR COUNCIL form of government.

AGAINST the proposition to reorganize the City of Hope under the MAYOR COUNCIL form of government.

Being Seen And Listened To

We have come a long way since parents took the position that children should be seen and not heard. Now we have come full circle until some children seem to believe they should not only be seen but listened to.

Vice President Agnew is not the only one who has denounced campus dissenters for demanding that they be heard while refusing at the same time to listen to their elders.

Last week Sen. Robert C. Byrd, a West Virginia Democrat, attacked both the "hard core of hell raisers" on the college campuses who preach a doctrine of destruction and the "gutlessness of some college presidents and professors with iron-clad tenure guarantees who have contributed to campus violence" resulting in the destruction of valuable public property.

Students insist that they have to resort to protest demonstrations often leading to arson because their right of petition guaranteed by the Constitution simply isn't getting results. They have asked for significant changes, and they haven't been made, or even promised. Their message, they believe, isn't getting through. They simply are not heard, they say.

This is not exactly true, of course. What they are saying is being heard loud and clear. But a great many people, younger people as well as older ones, do not agree with all that is demanded. They agree that change is necessary, and changes are being made. Anyone who considers only the past 10 years must realize that America certainly isn't the same today as it was in 1960 and never will be again.

The complaint that students are not being heard leads one to the conclusion that what some of them want is for others to do as they say. — Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel

Words Fly as P. O. Reform Bill Passes

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale overhaul of the nation's mail system and an 8 percent pay raise for mailmen have been approved by the House in a historic 10-hour session marked by some bitter floor exchanges.

With uniformed mailmen loading the galleries and tempers growing short on the floor, the House passed the reform-pay bill Thursday night 357 to 24 and sent it to the Senate.

An effort to pass only the pay-raise provision and reject the plan for an independent, self-supporting Postal Service was defeated 308 to 77.

House approval of the bill headed off threats of another nationwide mail strike even though Senate action is not expected until after the July 4 recess and final enactment appears to be at least a month away.

But opponents said the House "will live to regret bitterly" the day it voted to give up Congress' 181-year control of the mails to an independent agency. They said reform is only a label for a plan that will restructure the postal system but offers no assurance of faster mail service, efficiency and modernization.

The new service is to put the mails on a self-paying basis by 1978 through corporate powers to set rates covering expenses—subject to congressional veto, negotiate pay with postal unions and sell up to $10 billion in bonds, mostly for modernization.

President Nixon, Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount and House backers said the reform is needed to wipe out annual deficits nearing $2 billion—but opponents say the new system can avoid similar deficits only by a sharp boost in the price of stamps.

The pay boost, effective as of last April 18, is expected to cost $538 million for the full fiscal year starting July 1 plus $107 million for the retroactivity this year.

The House waded through 35 amendments—including unsuccessful efforts to resurrect the penny post card and save congressmen's patronage on postmaster appointments—during

If You're a Worrier You'll Find It's Tougher in Summer

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — What are your plans for summer worrying?

Some human workhorses like to do heavy worrying all year round. Their brows are as wrinkled and their shoulders as bent with the world's problems in July as they are in February.

This doesn't make much sense. When warm winds blow, flowers bloom, and the sun shines all day long, it becomes much more difficult to worry productively.

Naturally no conscientious worrier ever wants to throw away his troubles altogether, but what he can do is shelve some of the heftier ones during the hot season and face them next October when he'll feel stronger.

Which ones to keep and which to postpone? Ah, that's another worry in itself, isn't it?

Here, however, is a suggested list of fascinating problems you can knit your eyebrows over later without destroying the battling average of your worrying: Is mankind's spiritual poverty hereditary or acquired?

Will Cassius Clay ever fight another fight outside a courtroom?

If we don't shore up the U.S. shoreline faster, will we soon have no shoreline at all?

LONDON (AP) — Harold Wilson let wages rise and put Britain's trading ledgers in the black for the first time in seven years. But more British voters were worried by Edward Heath's warnings of inflation, higher taxes and unemployment.

Wilson's low key, don't rock the boat campaign and the opinion polls predicting Labor's re-election lulled the Laborites into complacency, and they stayed away from the polls in droves.

Spy Rocket Put Up by Air Force

by HOWARD BENEDICT
Associated Press Writer
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force today rocketed a secret spy satellite into space to gather a vast amount of intelligence data about Russia, Red China, North Vietnam and other potential trouble spots.

A towering Atlas-Agena rocket blazed away from Cape Kennedy about 7:39 a.m. EDT to propel the superspy toward a near stationary outpost some 20,000 miles above Southeast Asia.

The Air Force clamped a secrecy label on the launching and made no advance announcement.

Sources reported the satellite is the first of an operational series whose main job is to provide early warning of an enemy missile attack either from land or submarine.

They said the 26-foot long Agena carried a television camera to spot missile sites, air bases, troop movements and other military installations and infrared and X-ray sensors to detect the exhaust of a rising rocket.

It was the third secret launch of an Atlas-Agena from Cape Kennedy in 22 months. The sources reported the two earlier satellites, fired Aug. 6, 1968, and last April 19, were experimental prototypes for the payload lofted today.

Both prototypes were placed in near stationary orbit above Southeast Asia, their speed synchronized with that of the rotating earth so they would hover always over that area of the globe.

Ceremony at Blanchard Spgs. Cavern

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton was named chairman Thursday of a 35-member committee that was established to review the state's formulas for distributing school aid.

State Rep. Ode Maddox of Oden was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Betty Turner of Prescott was named recording secretary.

The group, the state Advisory Committee for the Evaluation of Arkansas State Financial Aid Formulas, was established by the March special legislative session.

The committee received reports Thursday on the educational system.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark. (AP) — J. Phil Campbell Jr., undersecretary of agriculture, and Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller will speak Saturday morning at the groundbreaking ceremony for the visitor center at Blanchard Springs Cavern.

Rockefeller and Campbell also will tour the cavern, which is expected to be officially opened to the public by 1972. Cavern promoters said it will rival in grandeur and size the Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico.

More than 1,000 persons are expected to attend the groundbreaking. The cavern will be open to tours throughout the day.

Williams Draws Life Sentence

By Mary Nell Turner

Sixteen-year old Richard Neal Williams was declared guilty of first degree murder with life imprisonment by the jury in the Hempstead County Circuit Court Thursday afternoon following two hours' deliberation.

Judge William H. Arnold III has set next Wednesday for the formal sentencing.

Williams had been charged with first degree murder in the deaths of Paul R. Parsons and Mrs. LuDean Cassidy by Prosecuting Attorney W. H. (Dub) Arnold. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney John Graves assisted in the prosecution.

The crimes took place March 29 on Highway 4 near Bingen. Lester E. Dole of Camden was the defense attorney for Williams.

Stuttgart Man Shot in Iowa

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP) — Authorities were investigating Thursday the fatal shooting Wednesday night of Harold D. Sherman, 25, formerly of Stuttgart, Ark.

Police Capt. Elmer Peterson said Sherman was struck in the neck by a bullet fired by Patrolman John Mack when Sherman fled down an alley and failed to heed a warning shot into the air.

Peterson said Sherman had been working in Davenport as a laborer for about three months.

The police captain said Larry Bogan of Davenport told officers that he was driving home Wednesday night when a car with Arkansas license plates and carrying two men began following him.

Arriving at the Bogan residence, the pair engaged in an argument and fist fight with Bogan before one of them entered a nearby house twice, emerging first with a shotgun and later a pistol, Bogan was quoted as saying. Police said two shots were fired during the fight.

Neighbors called police, who surrounded a house into which Sherman had fled, officers said.

Peterson said that Mack and his partner then saw Sherman run out the back door of the house and flee down an alley.

The officers gave chase, Peterson said, and Sherman fired at them. Peterson said Mack shot Sherman after firing a warning shot into the air.

Reds Return Spaceship to Earth

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet spaceship Soyuz 9 returned to earth today after its record-breaking space endurance flight with two cosmonauts aboard, Tass news agency reported. It was in orbit for more than 17 days.

The Soviet news agency said Soyuz 9 landed at a predestined area 45 miles west of the town of Karaganda. Cosmonauts Andrian Nikolayev and Vitaly Sevast'yanov were in good shape on landing, it added.

The spaceship had been orbiting the earth since June 1, four days longer than the American record for time in space set by Gemini 7 in 1965.

Some Foreign Policy Changes Due Under New British Regime

LONDON (AP) — As Edward Heath's Conservatives prepared to take over the British government, they share with Harold Wilson's Laborites the same international aims of extending British influence abroad, protecting the nation's interests and remaining loyal to its allies.

But in style and emphasis Sir Alec Douglas-Home, Heath's likely choice for foreign secretary, will differ from Labor's Michael Stewart on at least three major issues:

—Nuclear weapons policy.

—Britain's role in the Persian Gulf, the Indian Ocean and Southeast Asia.

—Relations with the white supremacy regimes of South Africa and Rhodesia.

In the nuclear field, the Conservative program says Britain must retain independent control of its nuclear weapons to deter an aggressor. The Labor government assigned the nation's total nuclear strike capacity to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization for as long as NATO lasts. But because of doubts that "the United States government will risk a holocaust defending Europe against nuclear blackmail," Heath has proposed a joint nuclear weapons program in Western Europe based on the pooling of British and French resources, know how, and weapons arrangements including targeting.

East of Suez, the Conservatives are pledged to reverse Labor's plans to withdraw British troops from their Persian Gulf, Singapore and Malaysian bases, a withdrawal program due to be completed by the end of 1971.

There have been signs that Malaysia and Singapore would like British forces to stay on, and so would the Americans. But in the Persian Gulf, where a new union of nine Arab shiek-

June 25 Is Deadline on Registration

Mrs. Pat House, Hempstead County Clerk, states that the deadline for making changes in voting precincts for registered voters before the July 14 City election is Thursday, June 25.

In order for a registered voter to make a change in voting precinct, the County Clerk's office must be notified either in person, by telephone or by mail. No changes can be made without authorization of the party to be changed.

Many boundaries for the City limits have been changed and extended in the past several years and this will greatly affect the voting precincts. In the 1968 general election, voters approved the annexation of 1194 acres to the City of Hope. Persons living in this area are required to change their voting precinct from a country box to a city precinct. If this change is not made prior to the June 25 deadline, voters will not be permitted to cast a ballot in the coming city election of July 14.

doms is forming, the pointers suggest a continued British presence will not be welcome.

Heath and his aides have come out emphatically for better working relations with South Africa and for a new bid to come to terms with rebel Rhodesia.

They have promised to cancel the Labor government's ban on the sale of weapons to South Africa provided those weapons are needed only for external defense. This doubtless will touch off a storm of protest in Britain as well as among Asian and African members of the United Nations.

The most immediate foreign policy task is the negotiations opening June 30 on Britain's new application to join the European Common Market.

"Our sole commitment is to negotiate," the Conservative campaign manifesto said, "no more, no less." But Heath made his reputation on his handling of Britain's previous attempt to enter the European community, an attempt blocked by Charles de Gaulle's veto. Despite opposition from some diehard nationalists among his Conservatives, Heath is certain to press as vigorously now as he did then to join Britain with the Continent.

No Negroes File as Democrats

By TOMMY YATES

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Charles D. Matthews, chairman of the state Democratic party, says he is disappointed that no Negro filed for district or state office this year on the Democratic ticket.

Twelve Negroes have filed but all as Republicans. One black seeks a seat in the state Senate, 10 more are running for the House and another, the Rev. R. J. Hampton, is among the gubernatorial candidates.

The only reason Matthews said he could think if why no Negro filed as a Democrat was that financial support was not available to them as was for the Republican party.

Matthews said he did not mean that some of the Negroes who filed as Republicans might have filed as Democrats if the party had promised cash funds for their campaigns.

Matthews referred to a statement by Rockefeller that he would continue to make personal contributions on a "formula basis" to Republicans running for office, but that contributions would be made only to the Republicans who win their primary races.

"The Democratic party never has and doesn't intend to offering any (cash) funds to its nominees for public office at this time," Matthews said.

He said money "we've accumulated and which we anticipated to collect since this committee has been in office" has

Britain's Labor Party Overthrown

LONDON (AP) — Edward Heath led his Conservative party back to power today for the first time since 1964, unseating Prime Minister Harold Wilson's Labor government in one of the most stunning upsets of any British national election.

Heath was assured of becoming Britain's first bachelor prime minister since the turn of the century when the vote count in Thursday's election gave the Tories their 316th seat, guaranteeing them a majority in the 630-seat House of Commons.

On the basis of nearly complete returns the Tories were expected to win a majority of perhaps 30 seats, confounding all the public opinion polls that showed them trailing badly before the balloting.

Wilson was due to offer his government's resignation to Queen Elizabeth II in Buckingham Palace later in the day.

The queen will then summon Heath to the palace and ask him to form the next government.

"We put forward the right policies, and we stick to them," Heath told his followers. "We have convinced people they were the right policies and that we are going to give them a better government tomorrow."

The 53-year-old bachelor leader of the Conservative party was jubilant that he had defied the odds and confounded the forecasts.

From the start of counting in Thursday's election it was evident that the Tories had made a comeback, but it was not until early this afternoon that they clinched a majority in the House of Commons. At that time they passed into the majority with 316 seats in the 630-seat House.

Later the Tory total went to 325.

The final tabulation was hours away, but there were predictions Heath would have a majority of 23 or more seats. Wilson's majority was 65 in the last House.

Wilson made the best of it, saying: "I would think I will be prime minister of Britain again."

Heath was expected to see Queen Elizabeth II by nightfall and assume the task of becoming her first minister. Wilson asked to see the queen to turn in his resignation, and the turnover of government was to take place quickly.

How did it happen? British voters decided it was time for a change. They took with a grain of salt Wilson's claim of restored economic stability, and they seemingly considered Heath better able to deal with problems of inflation, unemployment and Britain's role in world affairs. Some of them also took seriously the warnings against continued admission of nonwhite immigrants as voiced by Enoch Powell, a right-wing Conservative with whom Heath differs.

It was perhaps an irony that the Conservatives, the traditional party of the Establishment, built up its majority in polling which brought out more new-generation votes than any election in the past. For the first time the voting age was down to 18, from 21.

One factor evidently was that many people stayed home, perhaps misled by the polls into thinking their votes were meaningless. It looked as if just over 70 per cent of the voters had come out. The figure was almost 78 per cent in 1966 elections.

Clay County to Use Food Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin announced Thursday that Clay County, Ark., had decided to make government food stamps available to needy families.

Hardin said Clay County is among 77 counties in various states that are switching from commodity distribution programs to food stamps. Another seven counties and one city will join the food stamp program for the first time.
